For more than two hundred years until this day the image of Marianne represents the ideal of beauty and depicts a perfect image of a modern woman – liberated, independent and always enchanting! Her personification inspires women all over the world for search of self-identity, helping realize dreams and achieve goals!

A brilliant story, presented in the COINS collection – it's a precious blend of tradition and legends, a jewelry portrait of beauty and a proud image of freedom.

“ COINS jewelry pieces
hold within them many interesting stories – you pick one or all of them at once! ”

n a formal look pieces with the gold-plated coins are sure choice. Demure earrings and a pendant on a choker worn with a ring – an elegant addition to the most strict office shirt, while adding the flowing strings of the necklace will add a distinct charm.

The necklace string with coins and a ring will complete the usual image with a special charm turning it to one of success.

The gold coin is a display of abundance and wealth – an eternal symbol, keeping its power through centuries.
